3.6 Cessation of Membership

3.6.1 A member may resign his membership at any time by sending a written notice of resignation to the Honorary Secretary.

3.6.2 The Committee shall have the right to expel any member subject to provisions of clause 3.7.

3.7 Disciplinary Powers of the Committee

Every member undertakes to comply with the Constitution of the Club. Any refusal or neglect to do so or any conduct which is unbecoming, which includes any conduct which the Committee considers to be a serious breach of any By-Laws made under section 15 of this Constitution, shall render such member liable for expulsion, suspension, a caution, or such other treatment as the Committee thinks fit. The Committee may of its own volition or upon receipt of a complaint in writing hold an enquiry concerning the conduct of any member. The member concerned shall be furnished with a full copy of the charge made against them and shall have the right to be heard by the Committee before its decision is made. If the Committee decides to expel or suspend a member the member may, by providing notice in writing to the Honorary Secretary within seven days of the communication to them of the decision of the Committee, require that the Committee refer the decision without delay to a Special General Meeting, but the decision of the Committee to expel or suspend shall prevail unless reversed by resolution of the majority of the members present and voting at the meeting. If so reversed the Committee's decision shall be overruled.

4. REGISTER OF MEMBERS OF THE CLUB

4.1 The Honorary Secretary, on behalf of the Club, must comply with Section 27 of the ACT by keeping and maintaining in an up-to-date condition, a register of the members of the Club and their postal or residential addresses and, upon the request of a member of the Club, shall make the register available for the inspection of the member and the member may make a copy of or take an extract from the register but shall have no right to remove the register for that purpose.

4.2 The Secretary must ensure the name of a person who dies or ceases to be a member under Clause 4 is deleted from the register of members referred to in Clause 3.1.
